

- SOPHIE MESTDAGH

msunnflower@aol.com
4343 Lee Highway #302
Arlington, VA 22207
202.422.3604

- PROFILE

Highly creative and energetic design professional with solid conceptual design abilities, great work ethic and can-do attitude. Exemplary organization and communication skills on independent or group projects. Easily able to set priorities and provide strong commitment to design quality.

- EDUCATION

Ringling School of Art and Design
Bachelor of Fine Arts Degree
BFA Candidate Graduation date:
May 2000
Major: Graphic Design & Interactive
Communication

- SKILLS

Graphic Design

Strong experience in all phases of design process from concept to final production.

Strong experience with the design and layout of posters, brochures, cd packaging, report covers, newsletters and briefing material.

Computer/Software

Proficient in both Apple and PC platforms, experienced in use of plotters.

Software fluency in: Adobe Photoshop, Illustrator, InDesign, Acrobat and Microsoft Office.

Award/Competition

Received numerous performance awards for creativity and superior customer service with current employer, as well as winning several design competitions.

Language

Native fluency in French.

- TRAINING

Have attended design conferences and taken leadership and mentoring-oriented courses.

- EXPERIENCE

Federal Government

2000 - Present

Senior Graphic Designer

Responsibilities: consulting with clients to determine visual layout for information used in presentations and briefings. Create posters, brochures, report covers, charts, graphs and logos used for informative reports and by client offices.

Ispirato

2005 - 2007

I provided art work for sale at the store.

Store closed in July 07.

For more information please visit their website: www.ispirato.com.

Central Florida Box Company

Summer 1998

Graphic Designer

Summer internship

Designed and constructed package prototypes for Barnies coffee, Hawaiian Tropic

To see some of my art work go to www.sophiemdesign.com

References available upon request